Marcelle Willock, MD, changes roles at BU Medical Center

Marcelle Willock, MD, MBA, has been appointed assistant provost for community affairs and outreach at BU Medical Center. She will be stepping down as chair of the Department of Anesthesiology after 16 years at the medical center.

In her new role, effective July 1, 1998, Willock will facilitate effective relationships, both clinical and educational, between the medical campus and the communities it serves.

"Dr. Willock is going to play a key role in furthering our community outreach projects as we head into the 21st century," says BUSM Dean Aram Chobanian, MD, provost of BU Medical Campus. "In addition, she will be involved in the recruitment of minority students, residents and faculty to the medical campus."

"We are grateful for the service and expertise that Dr. Willock has provided us at BMC," says Elaine Ullian, president and CEO of BMC. "I look forward to continuing to work with her in her new role." ♦

Arts Day is on the way

Artistic BUSM faculty, staff and students are invited and encouraged to display their work at this two-day event, scheduled for Tuesday, April 21, and Wednesday,

April 22. The program will be held in the Hiebert Lounge and will feature paintings, photographs, poetry, needlework and sculptures.

For more information, call Franchot Slot at 638-4315. ♦

Students meet their match

March 18, Match Day, was a joyous occasion for most BUSM seniors as the results were announced of the national computerized process that matches graduating students with residencies at teaching hospitals.

One-third of this year's graduating class at BUSM will stay close to their medical school roots with 46 of 134 students choosing residencies at Bay State hospitals.

Twenty-one percent of the class chose to specialize in internal medicine, 13 percent are going into pediatrics and 10 percent are entering surgery residencies. ♦

Employee records relocated

The BMC Human Resources Department has relocated all employee records to the second floor of the Collamore Building, East Newton Street Campus. The files had been housed in the Nursing Education Building (NEB). Any correspondence formerly forwarded to the NEB should be forwarded to C-222. ♦
